LODOVICO COLLI DI FELIZZANO

Life, Style and Travel Eye

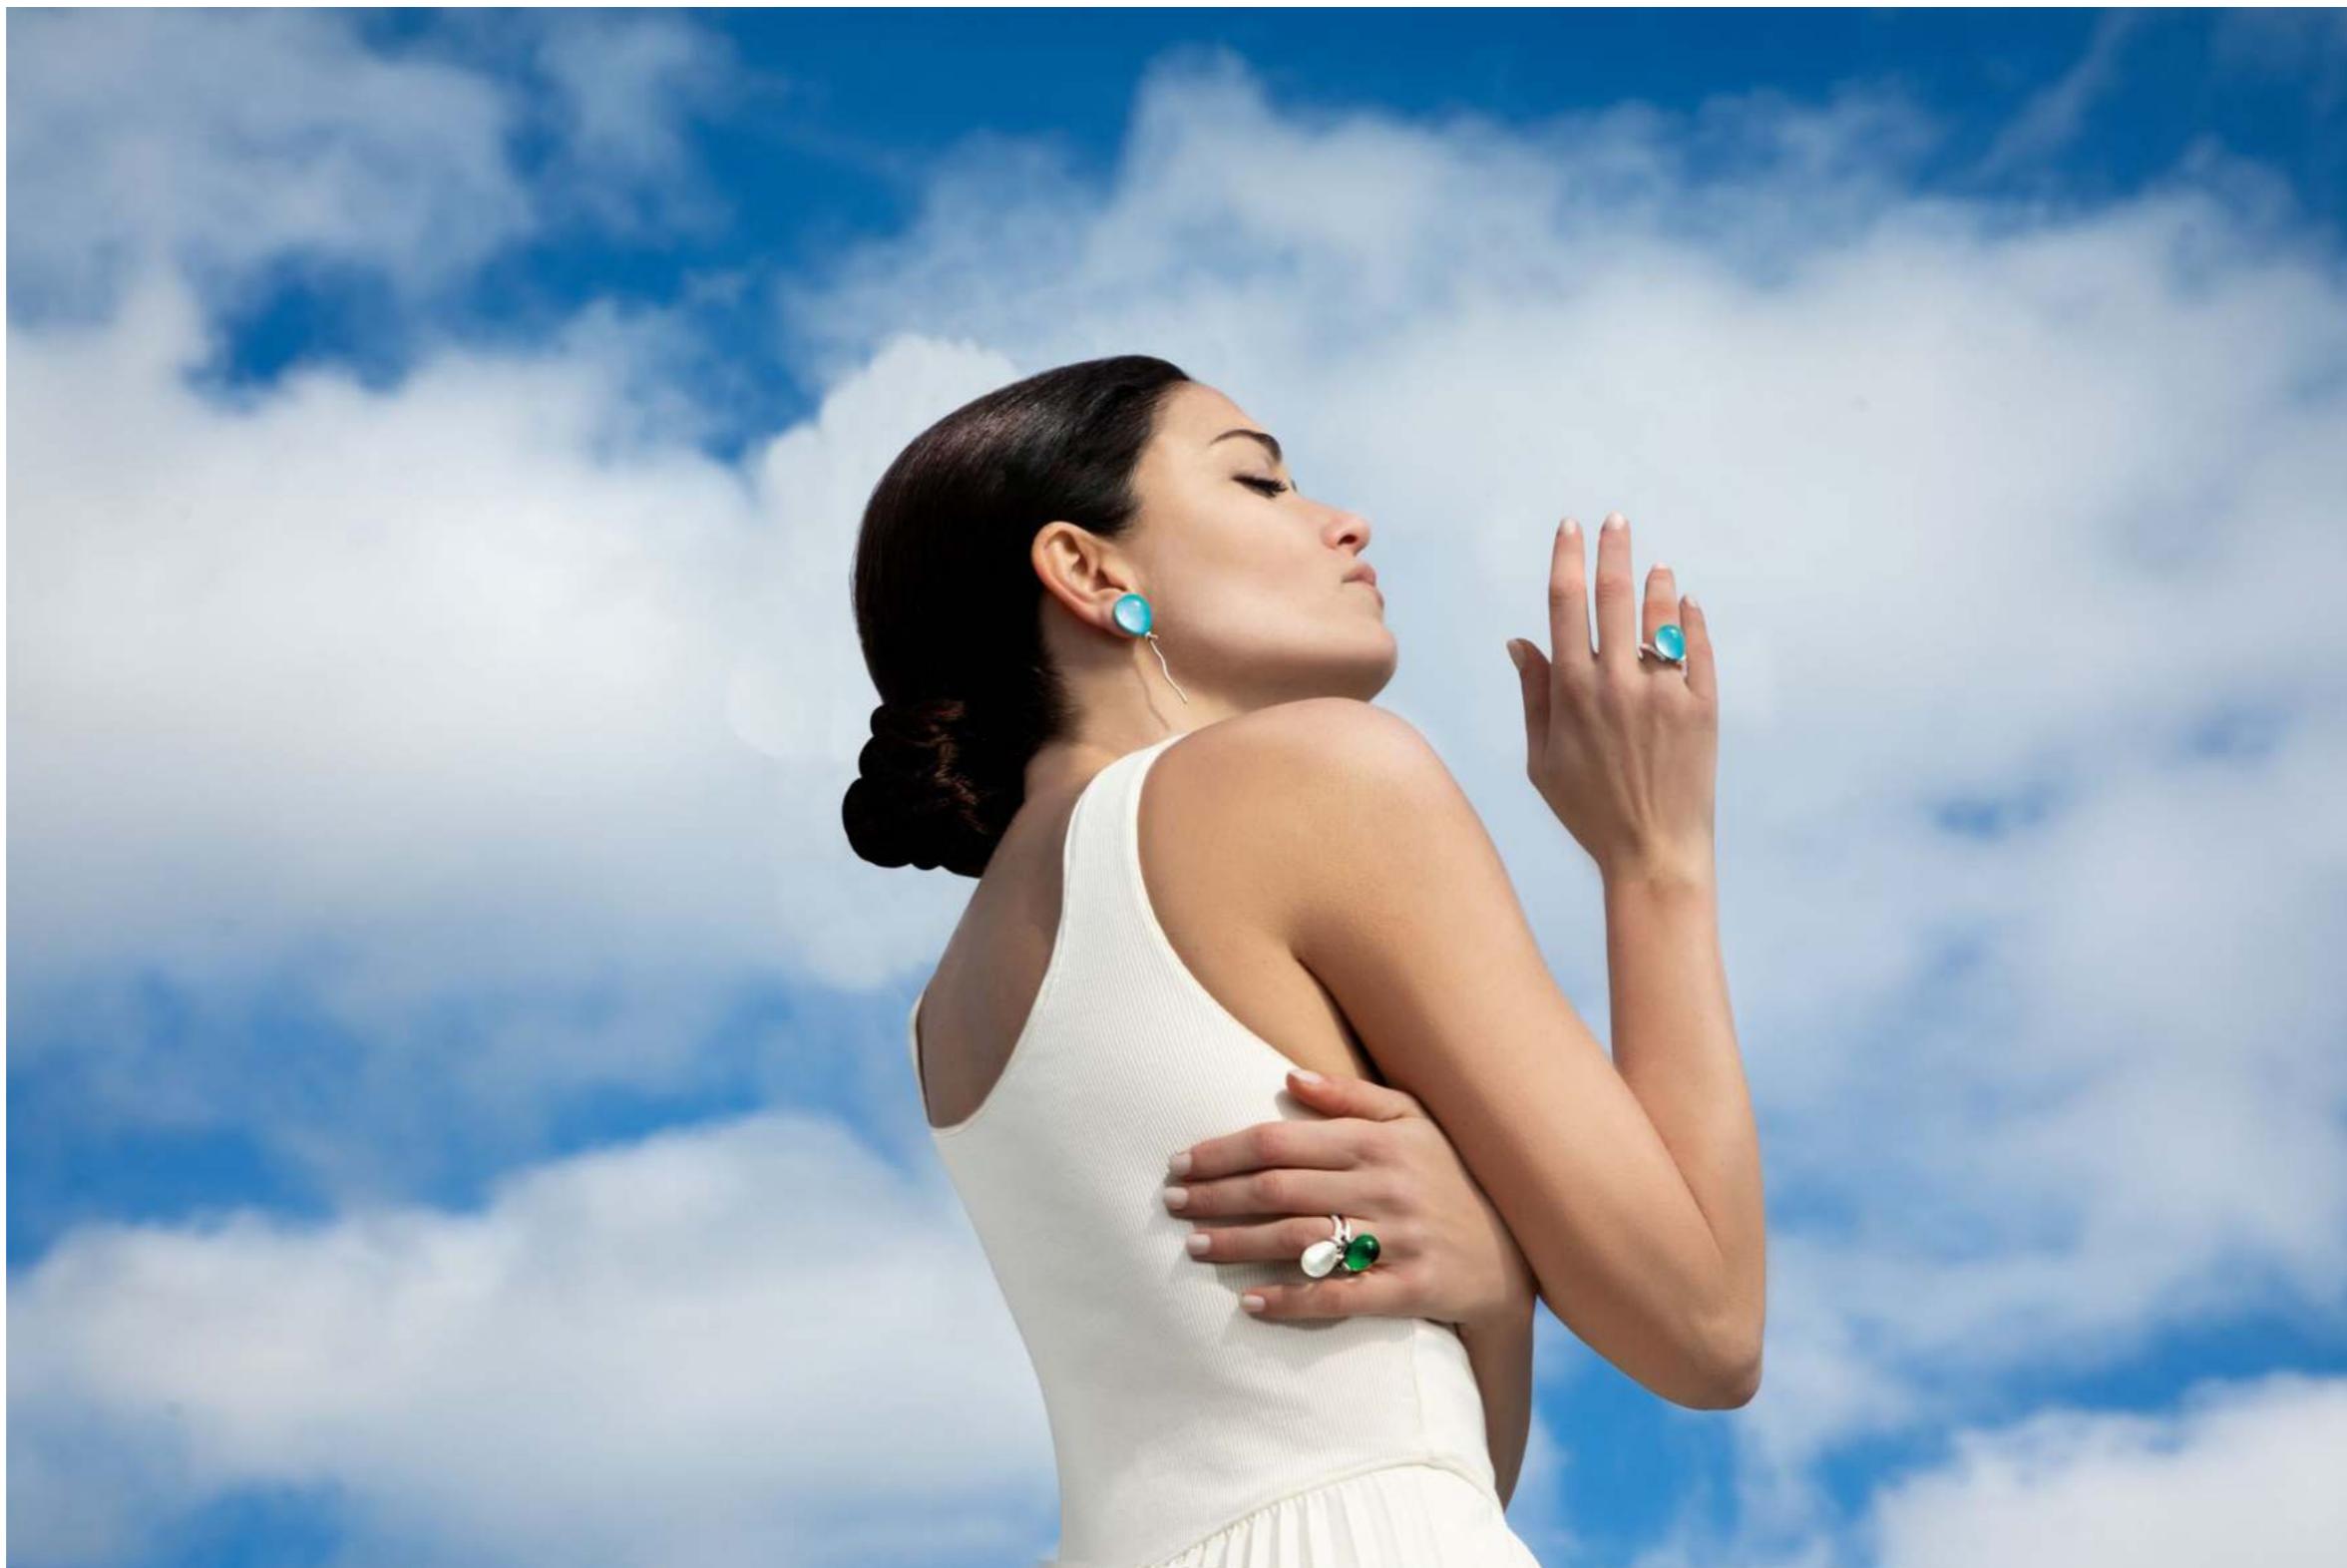

Lodovico Colli di Felizzano [Lodoclick] is a creative mind focused in Portraiture, Travel, and Lifestyle Photography.

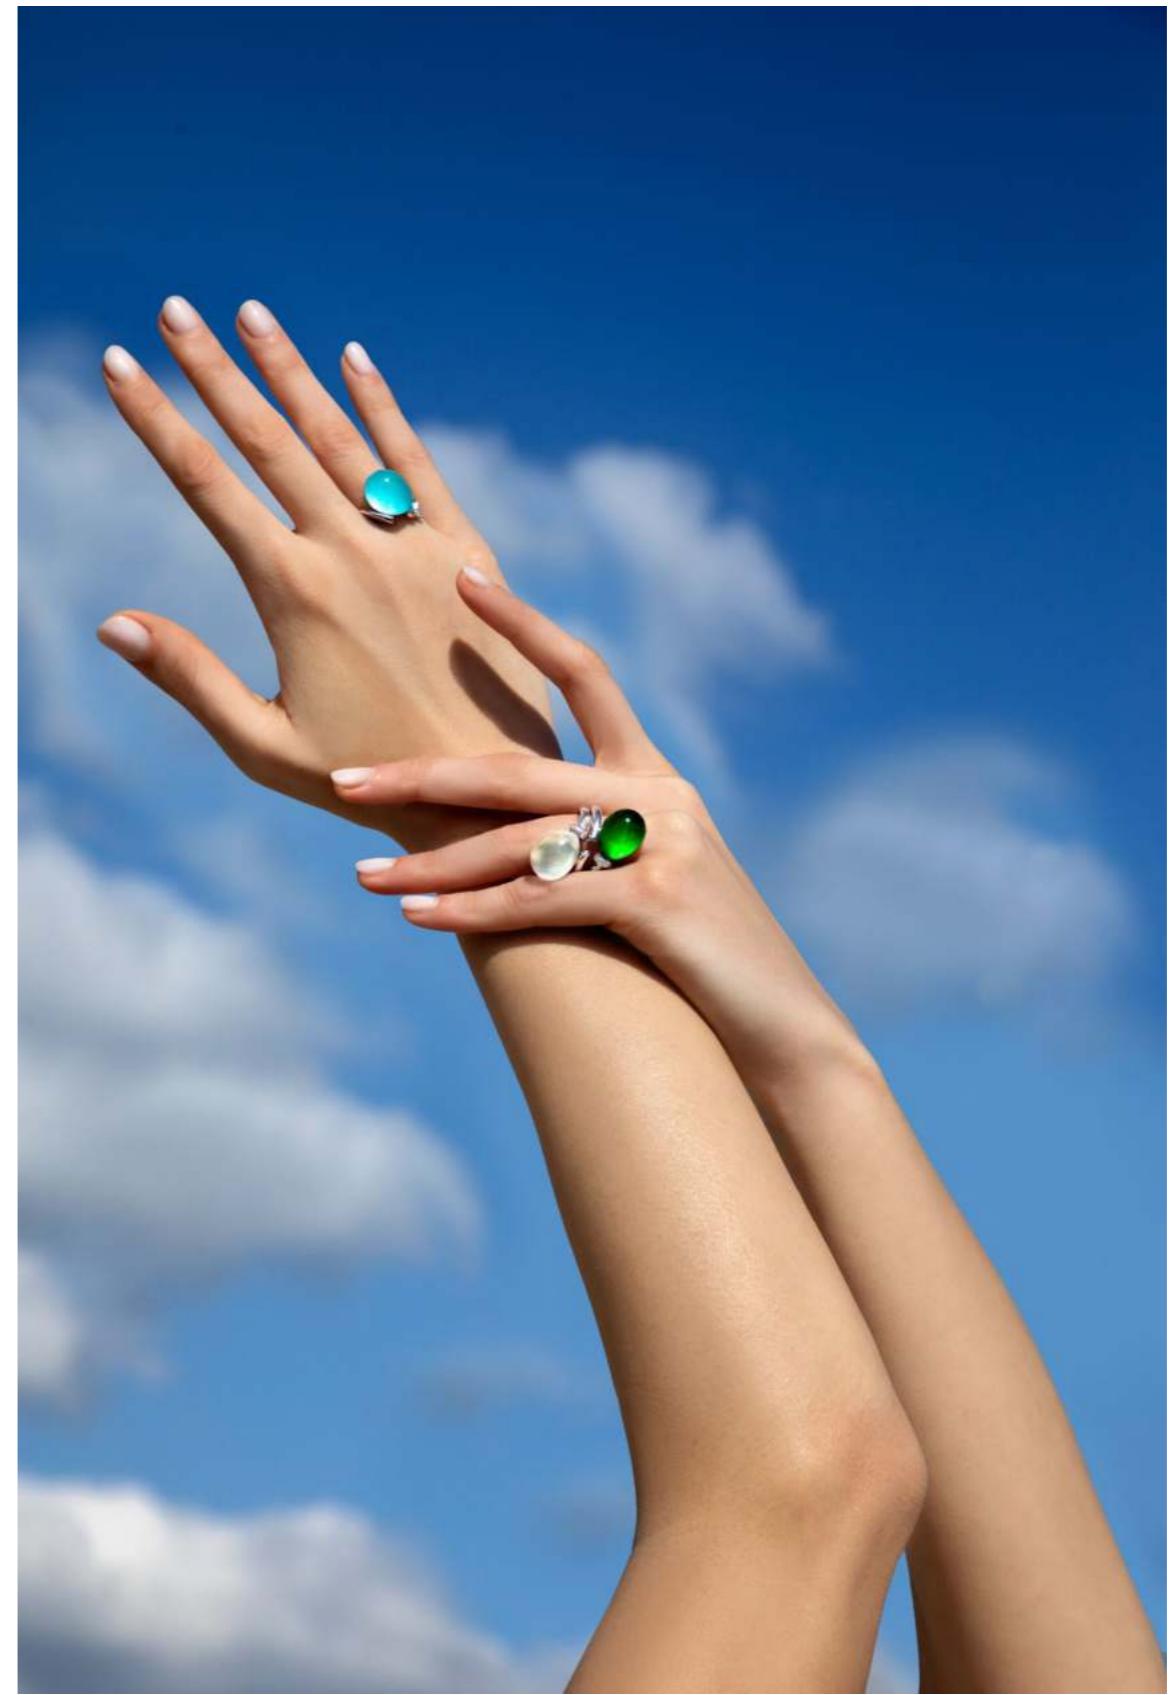

He was born in Genoa in 1990 and after classical studies, spent a couple of years sailing around the Mediterranean Sea. He learned the ropes in Switzerland working along the side of Gianguido Rossi (Helmut Newton's assistant) and in Milan as producer and key accountant for FSB Group.

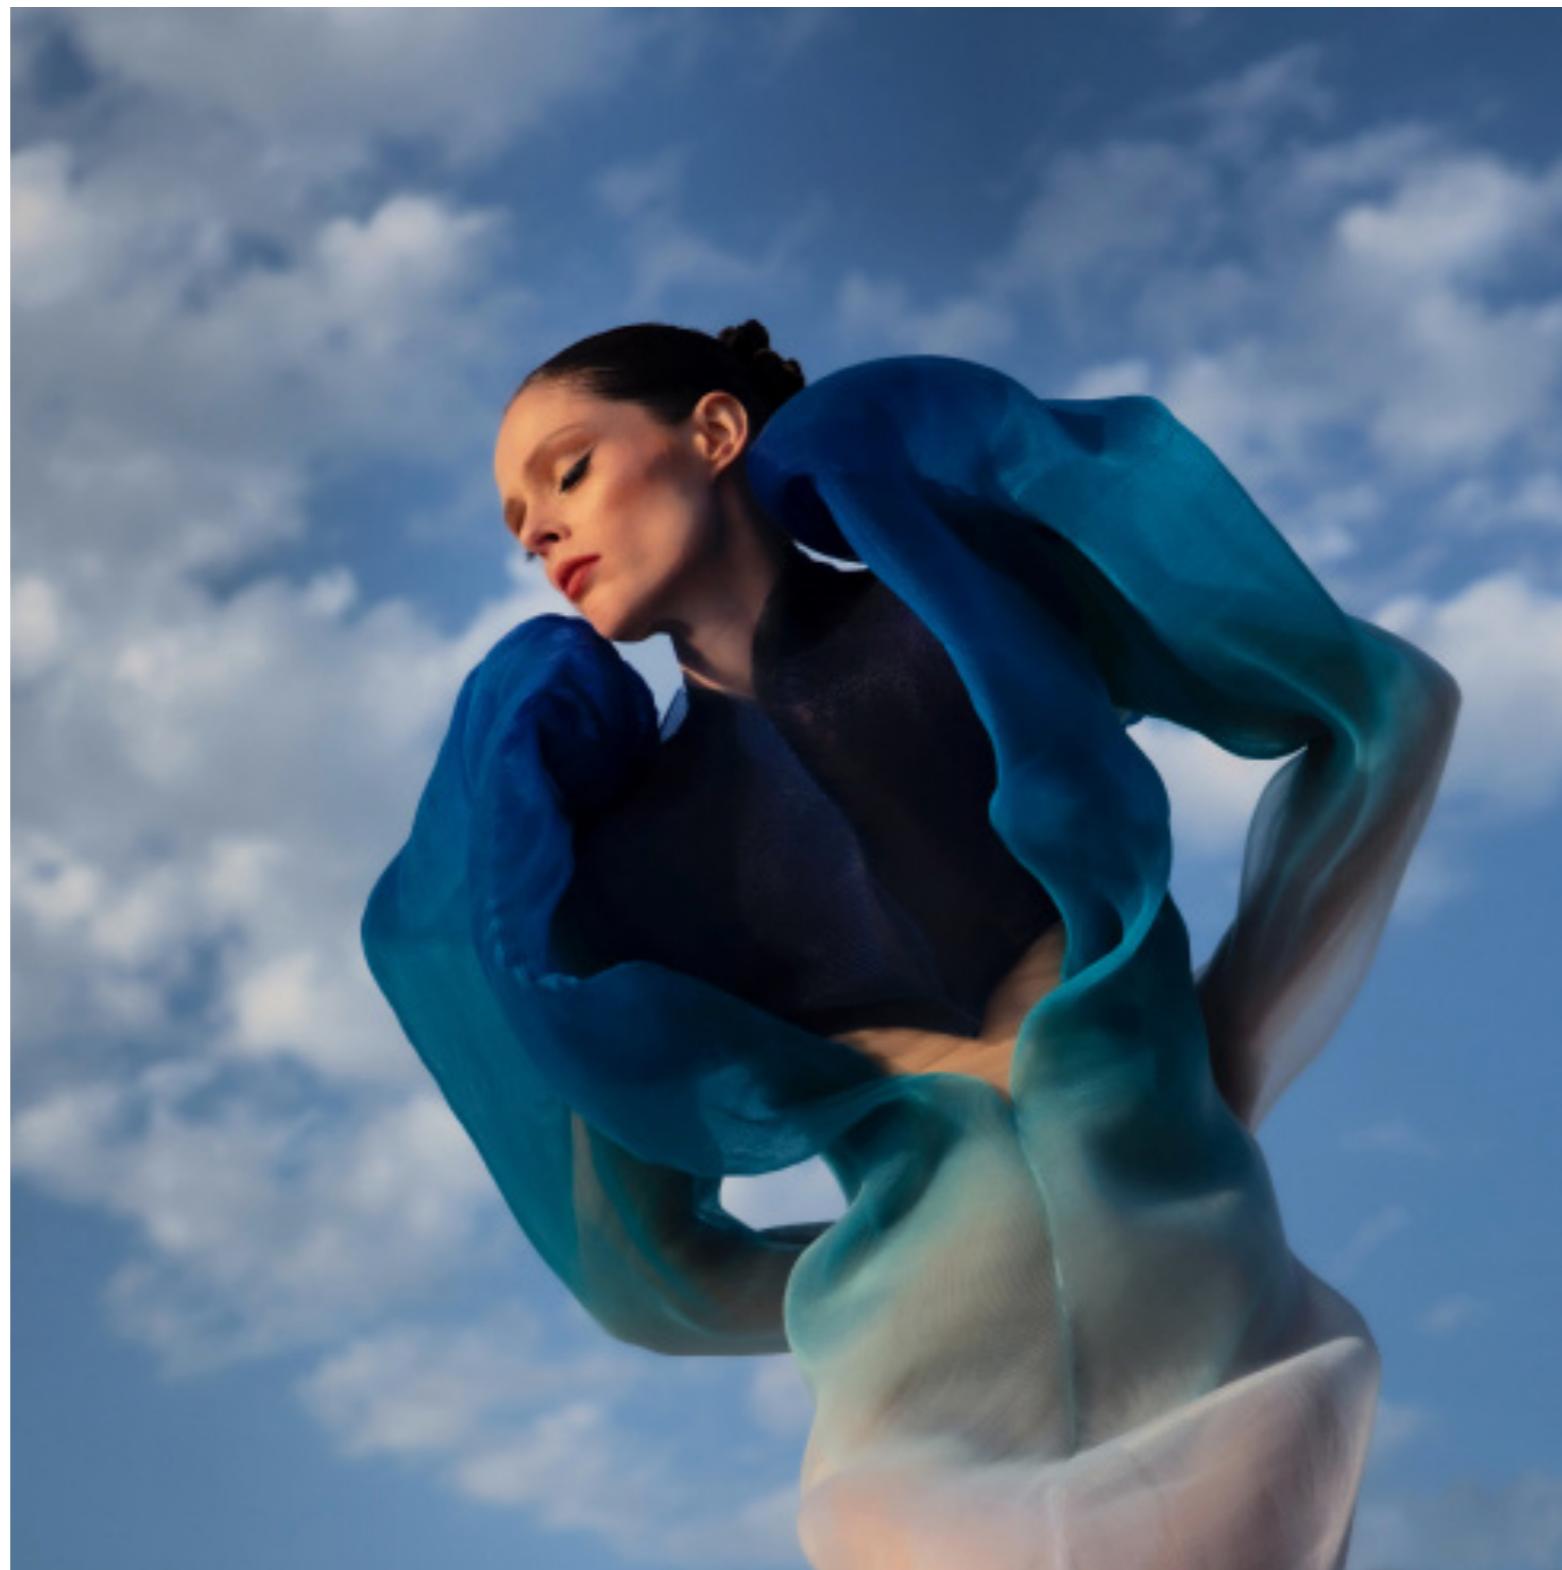

Felizzano built up his very recognizable style and unique presence on the set during the last ten years working with the Gotha of Fashion & Entertainment such as Giorgio Armani, LVMH, Richemont, Prada, Moncler, Ralph Lauren, Hearst, Condé Nast.

Felizzano has profiled A-lister's such as Uma Thurman, Giorgio Armani, Claudia Schiffer, Sofia Loren, Bianca Balti, Karl Lagerfeld, Michael Bloomberg and his iconic images have been sold at Sotheby's charity auctions.

During his many travels, he fell in love for India, which soon became second home to him. Other than Felizzano's strong ties with Jaipur and its Royal Family, he is involved in philanthropy and helps raising funds for different organizations, first of all the Orphanage of Varnaprashta.

Alberta's Auto

Alberta Ferretti approaches the design of the car she's asked to create with an open mind. "I'm not a car person," she says. "I would like to have a car that's elegant, that's a bit different, that's a bit special, that's a bit unique. I like to imagine the car I'm going to buy."

Alberta Ferretti's car is
